THE UPRISING

Kings Cinema NEW MARKET

Welcome

As is familiar to you all by now, I try and age my introduction by giving a glimpse in to my world as I write it. So, in the spirit of that, over the last two days we have just experienced the first rain in what feels like a lifetime. I'm sure you all joined me in standing outside in almost disbelief before commenting to anyone in the proximity, 'good for the garden, isn't it'.

One of those fantastic speakers I've alluded to is Freya Bennett, who has been running a Script to Screen season of films and screenwriting classes. This is a great way of either beginning your screen writing journey or a great chance to finesse your work under the supervision of a BAFTA recognised writer.

We have had a fantastic summer with the film of year, THE ODYSSEY, proving to be the blockbuster we all hoped and expected. Another truly incredible film from the brilliant Sir Christopher Nolan. That wasn't it from Tom Holland though, with SPI-DER-MAN: BRAND NEW DAY proving very popular and adding some lighter relief.

So, still lots going on as we transition out of Summer and into darker, autumnal nights. We hope to have two amazing returning events this Autumn, with Krazy Horse and another Wine & Dine event just waiting to be confirmed. We truly value these partnerships and hope you do as well. Please keep an eye on our social media and website for more details, we are constantly working to bring new and exciting things, so watch out.

As you pick this brochure up, we are amid Made in East Anglia. Our very own celebration of life in the region, curated by hugely talented Julian, our Film and Technical Manager, and the team here. We put a real emphasis on events this year, trying to get live and personal events around screenings. Thank you to all the fantastic speakers who help make the festival special, as well to Butterworth & Sons, our main sponsor and the best supplier of coffee in the region.

Thank you, as ever, for your continuous support. As a team, we truly appreciate it.

Gareth
General Manager

Starring: Jacob Elordi, Josh Brolin, Margaret Qualley, Guy Pearce, Benedict Wong, Allison Janney. USA, 2026.

Based on Peter Heller's captivating bestseller, legendary director Ridley Scott returns with a riveting, epic thriller, set in a world where survival is instinct, but humanity is a choice. Scott tells the story of Hig (Jacob Elordi), a young pilot who's carved out an efficient but isolated homestead in a brutal post-apocalyptic world. That is, until a mysterious radio transmission spurs him to venture into the unknown in search of the humanity he still believes exists.

The Incomer

TBC

Director: Louis Paxton.

Starring: Domhnall Gleeson, Gayle Rankin, Grant O'Rourke. UK, 2026.

Debut director Louis Paxton blends surreal humour with warmth and pathos in this homegrown folk comedy, winner of the NEXT Innovator Award at 2026's Sundance Film Festival. Their world is upended with the arrival of an awkward council worker (Domhnall Gleeson) who has come to uproot them from their homeland on behalf of the government...

Pressure

TBC

Director: Anthony Maras.

9 SEP

Starring: Andrew Scott, Brendan Fraser, Damian Lewis, Kerry Condon, Chris Messina. UK, 2026.

A gripping ticking-clock thriller with a superb cast, Pressure dramatises one of World War II's most pivotal moments from a riveting new perspective – this may be history you know, but this is a story you don't. At its centre is a captivating dynamic between two of the best in the game: BAFTA-winning star Andrew Scott, and Oscar-winner Brendan Fraser. The year is 1944. As Europe's Allied forces finalise plans to land in Normandy, General Dwight D. Eisenhower's (Fraser) new weather chief, Captain James Stagg (Scott), predicts a turn in the climate that could jeopardise their crucial timing. With their team fracturing, Stagg and Eisenhower face an impossible choice: launch the largest, most dangerous invasion in history, or risk losing the war altogether.

Practical Magic 2

Gather your sisters and prepare to be bewitched by this long-awaited sequel. Fun, magic and mayhem abound in Practical Magic, the none-more-autumnal 1998 classic starring Sandra Bullock and Nicole Kidman as witchy siblings with extraordinary powers (and, subsequently, complicated personal lives). Practical Magic 2 returns us to a world steeped in moonlit mischief, powerful ancestral magic, and - of course - midnight margaritas, as Sally (Bullock) and Gilly (Kidman) finally confront the dark curse that has long held sway over the hearts of centuries of Owens women. Meanwhile, Sally's children Kylie (Joey King) and Antonia (Maisie Williams) are now young adults, reckoning with the history of witchcraft in the Owens family in their own ways - and facing their own romantic challenges... Practical Magic 2

A biting dark comedy set in a very familiar world - a struggling English state school - and starring four-time Academy Award-nominee Saoirse Ronan, Bad Apples is a brilliant, and brilliantly funny, take on a very complicated predicament. Ronan plays Maria, a beleaguered primary school teacher doing her best to inspire a class of 11-year-olds - but unable to so, because of one unruly, chaotic student. With her career in question, a series of accidents and bad decisions finds Maria doing something truly unheard of: taking this 'bad apple' and locking him up in her home. She tries desperately to backtrack, but soon, the class starts flourishing and the staff and parents are thrilled with the improvement...

But when he inadvertently starts an environmental catastrophe, Digger embarks on a frantic mission to prove he's humanity's saviour before the disaster he's unleashed destroys everything...

Fatherland

12A

Director: Paweł Pawlikowski.23 OCT*Starring: Hanns Zischler, Sandra Hüller. Poland/Germany, 2026.

From the acclaimed director of Ida and Cold War, set against the political and cultural upheaval of postwar Germany, Fatherland is a timely, deeply resonant portrait of legendary author Thomas Mann at a pivotal moment in history, confronting what it means to be an artist in a divided, uncertain world. Told through the eyes of his daughter Erika Mann, portrayed by Academy Award nominee Sandra Hüller (The Zone of Interest, Anatomy of a Fall), the film follows the pair as they embark on a road trip across a Germany in ruins, from U.S. dominated Frankfurt to Soviet controlled Weimar.

Wicker

TBC

Directors: Alex Huston Fischer, Eleanor Wilson.30 OCT*Starring: Olivia Colman, Alexander Skarsgård, Elizabeth Debicki, Marli Siu, Nabhaan Rizwan, Richard E. Grant, Peter Dinklage. UK, 2026.

An audacious comic fable, Wicker sees a national treasure – the great Olivia Colman, Academy Award-winner – in a love story made of great material. On the outskirts of a village by the sea, lives a Fisherwoman (Coman); smelly, single and perpetually ridiculed. One day, fed up with her stuffy, small-minded neighbours, she commissions herself a husband to be made from wicker. When he materialises (in the form of a wicker-hewn Alexander Skarsgård!), in an otherwise conservative town, this unconventional romance sparks outrage, jealousy and chaos.

At the heart of the 1973 Chilean coup, amongst the Island's iconic statues, the longtime partners wrestle with their dark pasts and present conspiracies, while Chris's newfound bond with a pair of rebellious students (Mariana di Girolamo, Ailín Salas) threatens to send everyone's trip to this remote paradise sideways.

Think of England

TBC

Director: Richard Hawkins.

Starring: Ronni Ancona, John McCrea, Natalie Quarry, Jack Bandeira, Ben Bela Böhm, Oscar Hoppe. UK, 2025.

It's the summer of 1943, and a small, very disparate group of people arrive on a remote Orkney island beach. They're tasked with a top-secret mission: the making of pornographic films for the boys at the front. There's no sense of how long the war has left, and morale (as they learned from the last one) is everything. So, the ensemble – a war-damaged former movie star, a celebrated German film-director, a munitions-machinist-come-aspiring-actress; an Etonian major from the Ministry of Information, an aging, alcoholic hair-and-makeup artist and a young lad right on the very threshold of war's bloodbath – come together, and as battle lines are redrawn on the world stage, their moral lines are also challenged. Thought-provoking, witty and humane, it's a slice of homegrown filmmaking at its best.

PARENT & BABY SCREENINGS

EVERY TUESDAY AT 11.00AM

For parents with young babies, we have the perfect morning activity for you to enjoy. Every week you can catch one of the latest films with a hot drink and a piece of cake for just £9.50 (baby's ticket is included). You're free to move around the screen as needed and you'll be in the company of other parents. We have found that the little ones love the cosiness of our screenings!

DOG FRIENDLY SCREENINGS

For our fellow dog-lovers, we offer screenings of the latest films, set aside for you to bring your furry friends. We use blankets to cover our seats to ensure that dirty paws do not leave marks. We also thoroughly clean the screen after the event, to make sure that it is ready for our next guests. This is a great chance for you to socialise your dog in a different environment. It's also just a great bit of bonding time for families and their beloved pets.

All films for the mentioned screenings may vary from those shown here, depending on availability.

CAPTIONED SCREENINGS

WEDNESDAY & SUNDAY EVERY WEEK

We continue to offer Weekly captioned screenings on Sunday and Wednesday, giving the opportunity to catch new releases at two different times. We hope these screenings are beneficial but if you have any feedback, please let a member of the team know.

RELAXED SCREENINGS

These screenings are designed to provide a welcoming and inclusive cinema experience. We have created a warm, safe space where you'll be able to enjoy a film with the sound a little softer and the lights left on low. As well as this, we will continue with some distancing in the screen, to ensure that nobody impinges on your big screen experience.

We offer complimentary tickets for carers carrying a valid CEA card, these can be obtained online at ceacard.co.uk
